K.S.U. MOVING ON . . .

IN ORDER TO TRAIN TEACHERS FOR THE BLACK SCHOOLS OF KENTUCKY, THE KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE, IN THE YEAR 1886, ESTABLISHED THE STATE NORMAL SCHOOL FOR COLORED PERSON AT FRANKFORT. THIS WAS THE FIRST STATE SUPPORTED INSTITUTION OF HIGHER EDUCATION FOR BLACKS. THIS INSTITUTION BEGAN AS A COMBINED SCHOOL, INCLUDING ELEMENTARY, SECONDARY, AND WHAT TODAY WOULD BE CONSIDERED JUNIOR COLLEGE STUDENTS.

SINCE THIS SCHOOL RECEIVED ITS FINANCIAL SUPPORT FROM THE STATE LEGISLATURE EVERY TWO YEARS, THE PRESIDENT OF THE SCHOOL HAD TO PRESENT REQUESTS FOR FUNDS TO THE LEGISLATIVE'S BUDGET COMMITTEE. WITH NO BLACKS IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, THERE WERE NO LEGISLATORS TO AGGRESSIVELY DEFEND APPROPRIATIONS TO A BLACK COLLEGE SO THE SCHOOL'S BUDGET REQUESTS WERE OFTEN CUT.

IN 1890, THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS AMENDED THE MORRILL ACT TO PROVIDE LAND GRANT FUNDS SPECIFICALLY TO BLACK COLLEGES THAT TAUGHT AGRICULTURE AND INDUSTRIAL ARTS. IN ORDER TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THESE AVAILABLE FUNDS A DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND MECHANIC ARTS WERE ADDED TO THE STATE NORMAL SCHOOL CURRICULUM BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

IN 1887, JACKSON HALL, THE OLDEST REMAINING BUILDING ON CAMPUS TODAY WAS ERECTED ON A SITE DONATED BY THE FRANKFORT CITY COUNCIL.

JOHN H. JACKSON, A.M., A GRADUATE OF BEREA COLLEGE, WAS ELECTED THE SCHOOL'S FIRST PRESIDENT. THE SCHOOL OPENED ITS DOOR ON OCTOBER 11, 1887, WITH THREE TEACHERS AND FIFTY-FIVE STUDENTS.

THE NAME KENTUCKY STATE COLLEGE WAS CHANGED TO KENTUCKY STATE UNIVERSITY IN APRIL 1972. THUS, THE INSTITUTION BECAME ONE OF THE FIVE REGIONAL STATE UNIVERSITIES OF THE STATE OF KENTUCKY.

KENTUCKY STATE UNIVERSITY HAS BEEN UNDER THE DIRECTION OF EIGHT PRESIDENTS INCLUDING OUR NEWEST ELECTED LEADER, DR. WILLIAM A. BUTTS.

JOHN H. JACKSON, 1887-1898; 1907-1910; JAMES E. GIVENS, 1898-1900; JAMES S. HATHAWAY, 1900-1907, 1910-1912; G. P. RUSSELL, 1912-1923; 1924-1929; F.M. WOOD, 1923-1924; R. B. ATWOOD, 1929-1962 AND DR. CARL M. HILL, 1962-1975.

TIME HAS TRULY MOVED ON FOR K.S.U. AND AS TIME HAS TRAVELLED ON, SO HAS K.S.U.

DR. WILLIAM A. BUTTS makes his first address as president of Kentucky State University. Butts called for the support of everyone involved with KSU in building on the accomplishments of his predecessors. He also stressed the importance of cooperation between KSU and the local community.

Dr. Butts Becomes 8th KSU President

By JERRY WAKEFIELD

With the promise that "this university belongs to the future," 42-year-old Dr. William A. Butts today became the eighth president of Kentucky State University.

Butts was administered the oath of office shortly after 9 a.m. by Frankfort Mayor Robert Bennett, while his wife and two children looked on. Several members of the KSU Board of Regents and President-Emeritus Carl M. Hill and his wife shared the platform in Bradford Hall auditorium. Several hundred students and faculty and staff members filled the audience.

In a brief address, Butts cited the accomplishments of his predecessor, Hill, in his 13 years as president. Butts said the university's fiscal development "is directly tied to the administration of Dr. Hill."

"We will build on this heritage," he said.

Butts repeatedly emphasized the importance of the relationship between the university and the community.

He quoted a report which called KSU "a tremendous local asset to the state capital."

And he said the university has an obligation to provide services to "the people of the capital region and those employed in state government."

Butts said he would continue to build on the accomplishments of Hill and earlier KSU presidents to improve the university.

"I have dreams that will propel Kentucky State University further into the mainstream of education in this Commonwealth, in the region, in the nation, and indeed, in the world," he said.

Butts said the university's role is to maintain its identity as a teaching and learning institution with its aim the development of individuals to prepare them "for a wider range of job opportunities and participation in the mainstream of American life."

A BANNER YEAR FOR THOROBBREDS

After a 10-3 season start Oliver's charges suddenly caught fire and his team went on a 28 game winning streak, the longest in the country, that has carried it not only to the NAIA District Championship, but the Area title as well. After cake-walking through the NAIA Area 5 tournament, beating the No. 1, 4 and 9 ranked teams, the Thorobreds Ranking 16th in the NAIA went to take part in the 20th Annual NAIA World Series.

The teams efforts were halted in the last few games in the NAIA World Series bringing to a end a season of 53-4 and 4th place in the NAIA World Series.

A black and white illustration of a still life featuring books, a candle, and a lamp, with the text "EX LIBRIS" prominently displayed in the upper center. The scene is set against a dark background. In the foreground, several books are scattered on a light-colored surface. One book is open, showing its pages. To the left, a small lamp with a glass chimney and a handle is visible. A candle is placed on a stand in the background. The text "EX LIBRIS" is written in a large, serif font across the top. The overall style is that of a vintage bookplate or a decorative illustration.

THANKS TO THE CREATOR, FOR ALL THE

PRODUCTIONS EDITOR'S MESSAGE

At the initial start of this endeavor in July of 1975 it had been invisioned that this would conclude as the best annual in our school's history. But after encountering an unusual amount of misfortune and delay what you have before you is a piecemeal product laid out by a make shift but dedicated group of individuals. To those people I extend my grateful appreciation.

As the great majority of us spent our summer away from K.S.U. in relaxed environs, it was the plight of myself and a few others to labor long into the hot and humid Kentucky summer to present to you, the student body, the 1976 Thorobred.

Truly our theme has been carried out for in itself in 8 short months time, change, and progress had truly moved on. To Mrs. McLendon who stood beside this staff during our transitions I offer my grateful acknowledgement for the faith, patience and understanding as Advisor, to Reggie Charles for your timely witticisms and boosterings, to Gail, Velt, who was always there when I needed you most, to Bunni, Rex and to the Creator for giving me commitment, drive, determination and fortitude for ACHIEVEMENT I say thanks ever so much.

TIME

*TIME IS AN OUTLINE OF OUR TRUTHS WHICH HAS BEEN DETERMINED BY OUR ENDEAVORS.
TIME IS FOREVER WITH US BECAUSE WE WILL NOT RELINQUISH IT, BUT ONLY CHALLENGE ITS FLEXIBILITY.*
